

2008 Annual Report HELP of Door County, Inc.

“to eliminate domestic abuse through prevention and intervention services and to advocate for social change.”

From the President:

The English novelist Charles Dickens opens A Tale of Two Cities with the famous words: “It was the best of times, it was the worst of times.” The year 2008 was a bit like that.

Actually, 2008 was a very good year. We have much to celebrate. First, and foremost, is our wonderful staff. We are wonderfully blessed with skilled, committed, caring and loving people who throw themselves into their work with abandon. Everyone benefits from their hard work. Our clients are ushered through some of the most difficult days of their lives in quiet, safe, professionalism. Our agency is respected by our community and state because of the quality of their work. The Board of Directors is incredibly grateful.

We have completed the first full year of residence in our wonderful building. The staff and Board of Director’s vision for the building is being played out daily in this safe and efficiently designed place. As I noted in last year’s annual report, we continue to be grateful to all who helped us make this transition without incurring any debt. We celebrate that once again as the economy of our community, country and the world deteriorates.

The staff and board put in a lot of hard work under the direction of Susan Gould, S.C., of Gould and Associates, to produce a Strategic Plan for our agency. The result of months of work gives us six goals to work on as we move into the future. On behalf of the board, I can say a warm thanks to the staff for their enthusiasm and insightful participation in this work.

The Dickens quote mentions “...the worst of times.” Our country is struggling at this time. Jobs are being lost. Resources are dwindling. People are anxious. As expected, the need for our services has increased. We expect it will continue to increase. And donors are apprehensive. Funding sources have decreased their contribution to a number of our vital programs. The board and staff have discussed contingencies should our funding from various sources decrease. These are difficult times.

The way before us is not comfortable, but the need for our services is great and our resolve is strong. With the assistance of a wonderfully supportive community and a wonderfully skillful staff and dedicated board, we will make the best of difficult times and bring safety and peace into troubled lives.

Sincerely,

Don Heeringa, President, The Board of Directors

Dedication Center

The 2008 Annual Report is dedicated with great appreciation to Lyn Hirst, honoring her as a valued and respected HELPline operator from 1997-2008 and for her lifelong commitment to civil rights and her contributions to the local arts.

As a civil rights leader, Lyn attended the 1963 “March on Washington,” where she also heard Martin Luther King Jr. present his infamous “I Have a Dream” speech. She lived long enough to celebrate the historical election of Barack Obama. She confronted any injustice and strongly believed in equal rights for all, including the right to live free from abuse.

Lyn received the Editor’s Choice Award from poetry.com and the International Library of Poetry, an award given “for outstanding achievement in poetry.” She regularly contributed poetry to The Resorter Reporter. Lyn was active with Hope Church and volunteered to read with residents at Whispering Pines.

Lyn will be missed for her humor and willingness to help at a moment’s notice, including her assistance with HELP’s bulk mailing projects and fundraiser events. Let us remember Lyn, her commitment to our community, and celebrate her gift to us.

Evangelyn “Lyn” Hirst
September 6, 1931 – November 7, 2008

Lifelong partner of Jack.

A Time For Spring By Lyn Hirst

*When the snow geese honk overhead
And crocus and snowdrops awake in their bed;
When remnants of winter’s blackened snow
Cause the creeks to overflow,*

*When on the lake, swans drop in
And the peepers begin their din
And pussy willow’s fuzzy catkins grow,
When, spying fresh fields, the gulls fly low*

*And you feel the soft sweet rain of spring
And all the hope that rain can bring,
Then winter hearts begin to sigh
As spring bursts in a on a windy high!*

*Stream beds dispense old winter’s gloom
When marsh marigolds begin to bloom.
Give yourself a happy breather -
That warm glow you feel must be spring fever!*
